

Artful Living Movement presents

Way of the Awakened Woman

The Divine Feminine Emerges and Speaks Her Truth

Oct 6 & 7, 2012

Begins Saturday, Oct. 6 @ 530pm thru
Sunday, Oct. 7, ending by 12 noon

Join us for a mini-retreat as we celebrate our aliveness as a community of awake women, exploring the divine feminine in body, mind, heart, and spirit. Nestled under the stars, we will be supported by each other and the moon's energy and wake up to the active energy of the sun, fueling our individual and collective sense of clarity and purpose.

During this mini-retreat, we'll explore patterns that block our divine feminine and creative potential. We'll also access the wisdom of our bodies with sound current, mudra, and postures through yoga. Come indulge in a magical slumber party of sacred practices for healing and empowerment, and amplify our lives as awakened women!

Your guide for this gathering will be Liza Sat-Akal Camba, a modern-day priestess, healer, yoga teacher, and artist.
